

Luke 12:13-21 (NIV) ¹³Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” ¹⁴Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?” ¹⁵Then he said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.” ¹⁶And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. ¹⁷He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’ ¹⁸Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.”’ ²⁰But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’ ²¹This is how it will be with anyone who stores up things for himself but is not rich toward God.”

Two Deceptions that Form the Basis for Such a Life

1. “When Things _____.”

_____ is the great enemy of our soul.

2. “More Will Be _____.”

I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. (Philippians 4:11)

Want to Go Deeper?

- Tell God you want to worship Him rather than the things of this world.
- Memorize Luke 12:21.
- Give your time and treasure to show your love for God.
- Read “Margin” by Richard Swenson.
- Commit to private worship every day and worship at church every weekend.
